SALAD

A close-up photograph of a bowl of Gyudon Rice. The bowl is filled with a thick, brown sauce containing tender pieces of meat, likely wagyu beef, and sautéed onions. The dish is garnished with finely chopped green onions and white sesame seeds. A single sunny-side-up egg is placed in the center of the bowl, its bright yellow yolk contrasting with the darker tones of the meat and sauce. The bowl itself is dark-colored and sits on a wooden surface.
